THE GREAT STATES OF NEW York, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee, Nevada and California represented. THE

ENTRIES CLOSED

With eight nominations to be named at the post. The owners or representatives of the following horses having made nominations, it is expected they will be their choice:

THAD STEVENS of California, TRUE BLUE of Kentucky, JOE DANIELS of Michigan, HUBBARD of New York, ARIZONA of Tennessee.

While in this State we have the numerous get of NORFOLK, LION, BELLEMAN, LANGFORD, BELMONT and others to select from. These horses are all either now here, or on their way, and the novel sight of four stables of thoroughbred horses, with their owners, trainers, riders, groom and friends, traveling three thousand miles to contest for the supremacy of the turf was never before witnessed in the world.

It will be recollect that in August last the Pacific Stock Club, being assured of the liberal assistance and hearty cooperation of their fellow citizens, advertised a purse of $20,000 for a race of four miles and repeat, to take place in San Francisco or vicinity, on the 15th of November, 1873, good day and good track, divided as follows:

THIRTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS to 25th horse, FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS to the second horse, TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS to the third horse. No one horse to receive more than one purse, and no distanced horse to receive any money.

The object of the Club in giving these magnificent purses, was to induce the owners of valuable horses in the East to give the climate of California a practical trial by wintering here for one season, believing that from the experiment it will become the fashion, and from the fashion the custom, and from the custom the necessity, and thereby benefiting every branch of industry in the State and business in the city. The above race will positively come off as advertised.

A. J. BRYANT, President, F. WILSON, Vice President, JAMES SARGENT, Vice President, CHARLES ROSSMILL, Treasurer, WM. SHEAR, Secretary.

N. B.—The following gentlemen have been appointed by the Club to receive subscriptions in aid of the enterprise: H. B. CONYER, Cashier; L. B. WM. SHELTON, Secy.
